Salée. November 15.

Moscow, Dec. 7. Letters from the Czar's Court say, that his Majesty has had Advice lately from Prince Gagarin, Commander in Chief of the Muscovite Forces left in Persia, giving an Account, that it was generally reported, that an Army of 60,000 Turks was marched into Bagdad, in order to penetrate farther into Persia, and oppose our Troops; and that the Turks have put the old Sophi under Confinement instead of affording him the Assistance so often promised, because of his having declared for our Monarch and granting him some Advantages in his Dominions; that it is said, that this Design was concerted a good while ago between the Porte and Miri-Ways, and therefore the latter forbore hitherto to make Opposition to the Czar's Progress, in order to induce him to think the other was not in a Condition to do him considerable Mischief; but, according to the Scheme settled between them, the Porte was to send Miri-Ways a great Number of Troops as soon as the Czar should end his Campaign and retire, which he has now done, and that Miri-Ways should then attempt to dispossess the Muscovites from their Settlements in Persia. Prince Gagarin adds, that at first he seemed unwilling to give Credit to that Report, till he should get better Assurances by his Spies; but several of the best affected Persians having in a solemn Manner protested to him that Miri-Ways was actually on his March, he therefore finds himself obliged to demand sufficient Reinforcements while the Caspian Sea yet continues Navigable. --- Upon which, the Czar immediately (summoned a Grand Council) of War, and it was resolved to dispatch a Courier to Prince Gagarin, with Orders to keep a strict Watch round about him, and that he should very soon receive further Instructions how to proceed. --- Other Advice from Astracan say, that Vessels have arrived there lately from Persia, laden with Merchandize, some Chests of Gold Dust, and Pieces of Gold Oar dug from the Mountain called Ekry. The Dutch Resident and the Secretary to the Embassy of France, have obtained Consent from the Regency to set out for Casan to wait upon the Czar.

Rome, Dec. 19. The Pope is now thought to be out of Danger from his late illness, and his Relations are very desirous he would be more careful of his Health for the future, than he has been for the Time past. . . . Advice has been received here by Letters from Constantinople of the 7th inst, by Way of Leghorn, that the Russian Minister was put under Confinement, and that the Porte had declared War against the Caar.

Madrid, Dec. 21. On the 16th Instant in the Morning all the Officers and their Carriagants with the Train of Coaches and other Carriages appointed for the Reception of Mademoiselle de Beaujolois on the Frontiers, set out from hence; the Duke of Ossuna and the Countess de Lemos going with them. On the 13th arrived an Express from Cadix, with the agreeable News that an Advice-Boat was come in from Vera-Cruz and the Havana, bringing an Account, that the Quicksilver-Ships with the Marquis de Casa fuerte Viceroy of Mexico, were arrived at Vera-Cruz in 60 Days from Cadiz; That the Gallions from Cartagena and Porto-belo were expected at the Havana last Month, and had on Board registred above 11 Millions of Pieces of Eight. On the 9th of this Month died Don Gonzalo Chacon Captain General of Navarre.

Stockholm, Dec. 23. The Count de Freytag is to come hither from Copenhagen, to take his Leave of this Court, which he did not do upon his Departure from hence some time ago, in Quality of his Imperial Majesty's Envoy. --- Major-General Leeuwen is expected here shortly from Finland; 'tis said he has not been able to adjust with the Russian Commissaries the Differences relating to the Limits near Wirolax. --- The Royal Academy of Abo having ceased its Functions since the Year 1713, by Reason of the War, was again opened on the 26th past, with the usual Solemnities. The States of this Kingdom being to meet very shortly, Measures are concerting among the Deputies in Order to procure the Election of a Land Marshal or Speaker: And Baron Lagerberg, President of the Treasury, seems to stand foremost for that important Post, being a Person whose Administration since the last Dyet is so generally approved, that the Court-Party, as well as most of the Deputies, seems inclined for him.

Hambourg, Jan. 2. Advices from Constantinople say, that Prince Ragotski is fallen under Disgrace at the Ottoman Porte, Discoveries having been made of his holding Correspondence not pleasing to the Grand Signior: 'Tis added, that having concealed himself by his Friends Advice, a Reward is promised to any Person who shall bring in his Head : Nevertheless, Particulars of this Nature having been more than once reported already, and proved false, the present Report is therefore not entirely credited. Letters from Moscow say, that the Czar has given Permission to the Protestants in his Dominions to build Churches and Schools for their own Service, and has likewise declared, that the Russians are at Liberty to embrace the Protestant Religion if they please.

Brussels, Jan. 3. It is reported, that the India Company that is to be established in the Austrian Low Countries is to be executed according to the Plan which was recommended by the Marquis de Prié, and by him sent to the Court at Vienna ; the Emperor having approved of that preferably to all others.

Hague, Jan. 8. The States of Holland, now assembled, passed a Resolution Yesterday to appoint an Assistant to their Secretary M. Beaumont, who is above fourscore Years old : The said Place of Assistant has been offered to M Vander Duffen, who has hitherto declined accepting it. This Morning came Advice by the Post from Brabant, of the Death of General de Villatte Governour of Maestricht, and that Employment was immediately given by the States-General to M. Amerongen Governour of Tournay ; at the same time M. Montoye was named for his Successor at Tournay. The Command of the Regiment of Blue Guards, vacant likewise by the Death of M. de Villatte, is in the Disposal of the States of the Province of Holland, and there are many Competitors for it.
